

Imprint Proposal for ANIMAL

We are looking for writers/authors who can write on any of the subject matter below. A proposal would include a synopsis, one or two chapters, outline of the book and publishing history of the author, if any. This is an emerging imprint for a major publisher and all selected manuscripts will be rated by a board of internal readers.

The angles could be scientific, psychological, esoteric/ spiritual both fiction and non fiction and how best we can serve our fellow animals and they serve us.

Subjects would cover:

- Animal communication.
- Animal wisdom and animal as teacher
- Animal rights/ethics
- The human and other-than-human relationship and our response-ability in this
- Personal unique & life changing experiences with other members of the animal kingdom
- How our behaviour reflects our animal nature. (For example, animal migration is mirrored in our own need to travel, explore and find new 'foraging ground'.)
- The place of other animals in our future and their place in the evolution of the planet
- The Wild and the fear/attraction matrix in which this exists
- Domestic animals and how we can serve each other
- From herd to group consciousness. Instinct to intuition
- Engaging fictional stories and non fiction experiences

Basically, we are looking for invigorating and interesting proposals.
